RED CROSS IN CHURCH

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE METHODIST PASTOR FROM DR. HENRY HARROWER

We have received the following interesting open letter for transmission to the pastor and board of trustees of the Methodist church in Glendale and give it publicity here for its general interest and patriotism:

Rev. B. Dudley Snudden,
Glendale, Cal.:

My Dear Mr. Snudden—Following my conversation with you about the prospective use of the First M. E. church building for a sacred Red X concert at Christmas time, I have learned the facts regarding "the use of the church for other than religious purposes."

Mr. Utter, of the office of the Los Angeles County Council, tells me that strictly speaking the use of any church building for other than purely religious services is contrary to the law which establishes the freedom of such property from taxation.

We had quite an interesting conversation, and according to the law it seems that the use of a church as a meeting place in which to urge patriotism and, say, promote the Liberty loan, really subjects the trustees of that church to taxation. We both agreed that the law was faulty in this particular respect, and to change it would require an amendment to the Constitution. However, it was stated that churches are being used right along for purposes "not strictly religious," and that it was hardly thought that there could be trouble, though the law opposes it.

Of course, the Red Cross needs your church for the anticipated purpose, and it will now be up to your good trustees to decide whether the work of the Red Cross is "purely religious." To me this whole matter seems peculiar, but I have done as requested and give you this open reply. I do not believe that any save an enemy of our country and opposed to the spirit of the Red Cross would attempt to make trouble, in which event it should not need the eloquence of a Philadelphia lawyer to convince one that the cause of this country is a righteous one, and hence a religious one, for righteousness is the essence of religion. This being the case, the use of churches for the promotion of the work of the Red Cross is obviously fundamentally in harmony with the Christian duty of the church, i. e., furthering the religion of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Very cordially yours,
HENRY R. HARROWER, M. D.

MABEL HARRISON'S BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Mabel Harrison, 413 South Jackson street, had a birthday party on Wednesday afternoon, to celebrate her sixth birthday anniversary. There was a beautiful pink birthday cake with six pink candles. Pink cosmos and pink carnations were used for decorations. At each place at the table were pretty little place cards, and the napkins were decorated with pink wild roses. Tiny little pink candy baskets were given to each little guest as favors. The little folks were entertained with games and the making of little pink tissue paper aprons with the aid of scissors and paste. The guests were: Ruth Brewster, Adrienne Lawrence, Barbara Gilman, Barbara King, Lila Mary Widney and Gladys and Esther Jones. The only small boy at the party was two-year-old William Harrison, who had a glorious time and was exceedingly popular. Mrs. Harrison was assisted in entertaining the children by Miss Inez Harrison and Mrs. Roy D. King.

HERE TO ATTEND WEDDING

Miss Margaret Cross, 332 East Third street, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Alexander Cross, and her sister, Miss Minnie, both of Santa Barbara, as house guests for the week. They came down to attend the wedding of Miss Martha Porter on Thursday evening. Mrs. Cross has brought along her knitting, in which she enjoys a most remarkable record. She is just completing her forty-eighth pair of socks for the Santa Barbara branch of the Red Cross. She averages a sock and a half a day and has in some instances completed a pair in a day. This included twenty pairs of socks 23 inches long intended for the aviation and ambulance corps. Mrs. Cross has knitted since she was a very small girl, and she likes it. She is devoting her whole time to it now with great enthusiasm, and says very modestly that she is merely doing her bit. She states, however, that she will pause during the wedding ceremony.

BOOSTER WEEK

RESPONSE FROM FRIENDS OF EVENING NEWS PROVES PAPER IS READ

Is the Evening News read? Yes, it is read six days in the week by 5000 people. Five thousand people assembled in one place in Glendale would fill six large rooms equal in size to the Palace Grand Theatre audience room. So, after all, although the Evening News is not a bulky sheet it is a very popular little publication.

Ladies representing various sections of the city have called at different times for sample copies of the paper, which they are handing to their friends who are not already subscribers. These ladies are showing this interest voluntarily, believing that a more complete circulation of the community daily paper will tend to unify the people and bring about greater harmony and a true spirit of co-operation.

The Evening News subscription list stands open for inspection at all times by persons who are patrons and friends of the paper. It is a growing list; it represents a large number of the most progressive people of the city. This is truly Booster Week for the Evening News.

ENTERTAINS COMMITTEE

On Monday afternoon Mrs. M. C. Patterson entertained the calling committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which she is president, at her home on Riverdale drive. Mrs. W. W. Ramsay, president of the club, was the only guest aside from the members of the committee. A pleasant afternoon was spent in informal discussion of the plans of the committee. Mrs. Patterson served refreshments of ice cream and cake, and her decorations were particularly pretty. She used roses, chrysanthemums and ferns. The members of the committee present, in addition to the chairman, were Mesdames E. S. Andrews, Mary Brooks, George Adams, A. A. Dove and T. W. Preston.

THE ELKS' BUILDING

The new Elks' building that is being erected on Colorado street, near Brand boulevard, has been finished sufficiently on the exterior to give a passer by a good idea as to how magnificent this building will appear when entirely completed. The tile roof makes a beautiful appearance, as does also the clean, substantial brick walls, with their suitable ornamental furnishings.

Kent & Son, who are the contractors, are pushing the work along rapidly. The plastering of the walls has almost been completed. The inside finishing will be commenced soon. Some of the inside finishing will be in mahogany and some in oak. The contractors are planning to complete all work by the middle of December. The grand opening of this new structure will probably be about January 1. No expense is being spared in making the Elks' building one of the finest of its kind in the United States.

MISS WILLISFORD WINS HONORS

Pomona College has just issued a little booklet listing the students who won honors during the year 1916-17, with the exception of the seniors of 1917, which was published last June. Among those in the freshman class winning the very highest honors in scholarship is the name of Miss Carol Harriet Willisford of Glendale. Miss Willisford is a sophomore this year, and is having a very enjoyable year in all respects. She has a position as assistant in the chemical laboratory, and is active socially as well. She is chairman of the committee that has in charge the big Halloween party given by the seventy girls in the dormitory to the girls of the whole college. She will spend the week end this week with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Willisford, 231 Orange.

ENTERTAINED LADIES

Mrs. I. J. Phillips entertained ladies of the Episcopal church at her home, 710 West Fifth street, on Wednesday afternoon with a delightful tea. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were: Mesdames George Bannock, John Crampton, S. O. Delgardo, D. W. Hunt, H. G. Henning, Albert Hutchinson, Horne, R. P. Isitt, Freeman Kelley, Robert Morris, Isaac Pearson, Patterson, Archie Parker, Hartman, R. H. Wells and Miss Godfrey of Glendale, and Mrs. E. R. Miller of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips entertained Mr. John E. Good of Denver, Colo., as a guest at their home on Tuesday.

WILSON FLAYED IN REICHSTAG MEETING

DEPUTY HOFFMAN DECLARED AMERICAN PRESIDENT IS GUILTY OF PROLONGING THE WAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

AMSTERDAM, October 11.—Bitter invective against President Wilson featured the Reichstag debate today, according to dispatches from Berlin. Deputy Hoffman argued that Germany was not guilty of starting the war but that the American president was guilty of prolonging the struggle. The adoption by the British of France's war aims in Alsace and Lorraine means war to the finish he said. Another member of the Reichstag said that President Wilson's policy of an independent Belgium was a Utopian dream. "Only a British or a German Belgium is possible after the war," he said.

SEE HOPE IN TEUTON NAVAL REBELLION

AMERICAN OFFICIALS SEE IN REVOLT A CHANCE THAT DISCONTENT MAY REACH GERMAN PEOPLE

WASHINGTON, October 11.—If German discontent as shown in the Teuton naval revolt reaches to the German people, President Wilson's dream of a Teutonic empire free of Hohenzollernism may be reached far in advance of the date generally expected. It was in such a light American officials viewed the news of Germany's naval rebellion. In it they see a chance for the long hoped for internal troubles for Germany brewing.

ITALY APPRECIATES OFFER OF U. S.

AMERICA'S PROFFERED CO-OPERATION INTERPRETED AS RECOGNITION OF ITALIAN IDEALS

ROME, October 11.—America's special offer of co-operation with Italy is interpreted by officials as recognition of Italy's recent successes against the Americans. Italians express greatest appreciation for the offer and hold that it was given in justice to Italy's ideals and her part in the war.

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR HOOVER WILL TAKE STEPS TO COMPLY WITH PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON, October 11.—Food prices will be held in check by sweeping government control of staples as announced in President Wilson's proclamation. Food Administrator Hoover intends to put in force at once the president's order in controlling food prices.

TRAINMEN TO ASK WAGE INCREASE

FOUR BROTHERHOODS ARE CONTEMPLATING DEMAND FOR WAGES TO CORRESPOND WITH LIVING COSTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 11.—A demand for a wage increase of probably 25 per cent. is contemplated by four of the big railroad brotherhoods, the vice-president of the trainmen admitted today. The increase in living costs without a corresponding wage increase will be the basis of their demand.

LA FOLLETTE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

SENATE SUB-COMMITTEE IS EQUIPPED WITH FULL INFORMATION IN REGARD TO ST. PAUL SPEECH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 11.—With full information regarding Senator LaFollette's alleged disloyal speech at St. Paul, the Senate sub-committee appointed to consider the requests for his expulsion are meeting this afternoon to complete their program of investigation. The committee is inclined to think that the present charges against the Senator are faulty because of insufficient proof of deliberate and wilful interference with the success of the war on the part of LaFollette.

FUEL ADMINISTRATOR FOR CALIFORNIA

WASHINGTON, October 11.—Albert E. Schwabacher of San Francisco was appointed federal fuel administrator for California, it was officially announced today.

MATTISON B. JONES APPOINTED ON NATIONAL DEFENDERS' YULETIDE COMMITTEE

October 8, 1917.

Mr. T. W. Watson, City Manager,
Glendale, Cal.:

Dear Sir—Your letter addressed to our committee, advising us of the appointment of Mr. Mattison B. Jones to serve upon the committee as your local representative, duly received. This is to advise you that Mr. Jones has been selected as a member of our executive committee to represent your locality. Our executive committee meets Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week at 3:30 p. m., Room 444 Chamber of Commerce, Los Angeles, and it is the desire of our committee that your representative be present at these meetings as often as possible, especially in the initial stages of the movement. We have this to say to your local representative, whom we are endeavoring to reach by sending him a carbon copy of this communication, that is, that he should organize a local committee under him to co-operate with him in raising funds in that locality so that we may acceptably do honor to the soldiers and sailors at Christmas time. This is being done in every locality all over Southern California, and the sooner you can do so, the better.

Kindly report progress from time to time to headquarters here, so that we may know what is being done, and if you have any plans to suggest which you are following, and which might be acceptably passed on to other localities, kindly pass them along and we will appreciate same.

MR. AND MRS. PHILP RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Philp are again in Glendale at their home at 225 South Orange street, after a six weeks' trip East, where they visited relatives and friends. Four days were spent on the way east in Nebraska, from where they went to Chicago, Elgin, and then Algonquin, Ill. In Chicago they visited their son, Thomas V. Philp, who drove overland from here last June, a distance of 3100 miles. He has now accepted a position for the winter with his cousin, Arthur Chapell, in a wholesale ice cream factory. Mr. Philp has charge of the auto trucks. Mr. and Mrs. Philp enjoyed their whole trip immensely, but were speeded on their way on the return trip by weather that added to their pleasure in getting back. The rain in which they left Chicago was still pouring when they went to sleep in Kansas, and they awoke in the snow in Colorado. They are convinced that California is a very pleasant place.

VISIT RIVERSIDE FAIR

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Clayton, of Maxwell, Hupmobile and good second hand auto buys, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. King Barton, of Barton garage fame, are in Riverside attending the annual fair today. Clayton is a lover of county fairs. He likes to gaze upon the large pumpkins, squash and other garden stuff. The races, games and sports are what keeps him and King wide awake. The ladies will have ample opportunity to view the fancy exhibits while the men folk do up midway and make investments at the peanut and popcorn stands.

REPORT OF AMBULANCE PILLOWS

We need more old clean rags. So many children are cutting now that we can not get enough. When we gather papers on Saturday we shall be glad to collect rags also.

On Friday, October 5, 113 pillows were filled and on Tuesday, October 6, 19 more were finished. We now have 66 ready to send away.

The Broadway school children started cutting today under Mrs. A. C. Anderson, president of the Broadway P.-T. A., with the assistance of Mrs. Bryan, the principal of the school. Thirty-eight children stayed and cut for an hour, and then many of them begged to stay longer. However, the scissors are hard on tender little hands and it was thought that they had done enough for one night. There was a fine pile of shredded material to speak for their industry. Following are the names and time of these little workers:

Alda Weaver, 1 hr. 5 min.
Vesta Morrow, 1 hr. 5 min.
Carol Case, 1 hr. 5 min.
Helen Anderson, 1 hr. 5 min.
Ava Grace Winney, 1 hr. 5 min.
Shirley Chase, 1 hr. 5 min.
Wilma Kulp, 1 hr. 5 min.

ARTISTIC DECORATIONS

ELABORATE PATRIOTIC SCHEME CLEVERLY CARRIED OUT BY MRS. JONES

To Mrs. J. Glenwood Jones, chairman of the decoration committee, credit is due for the elaborate and unusual decorating scheme employed for the opening session of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, October 9. A patriotic motif prevailed throughout. An American flag of huge proportions occupied the east wall of the hall directly back of the president's chair. Under this was placed a picture of President Wilson, and to the right and left were hung pictures of Washington and Lincoln. The wall space on either side of the hall was hung with smaller American flags in groups of three. Placed alternately with these were handsome flags of England, France, Russia, Italy and Japan. About the platform, along the walls and in the window recesses great quantities of oak leaves were festooned, symbolizing patriotism. A stunning arrangement of pampas plumes and yellow chrysanthemums occupied the corners of the hall and huge allies' bouquets, a conceit of Mrs. Jones', composed of the national flowers of the allied nations, stood on the corners of the platform and on the piano. Smaller allies' bouquets in quaint bamboo receptacles were suspended along the walls, and potted ferns stood at the entrance. Baskets of pink carnations and yellow button chrysanthemums and ferns ornamented the directors' room and the treasurer's table.

The French flag, loaned by Mrs. Maurice Bondaux of Glendale, was made to order in Verdun for M. Edmund Bondaux, the father-in-law of Mrs. Bondaux, whose husband is serving his country "somewhere in France." M. Edmund Bondaux is the head of the Red Cross at Verdun.

The picture of General Joffre, also a feature of the decorations, is a gravure copy of an original painting by Lotare, a celebrated artist of Paris and New York. General Joffre has been referred to as the godfather of the American army.

The following ladies assisted Mrs. Jones: Mrs. Charles Turck, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. Della Pierce, Mrs. Henry Harrower, Mrs. Jesse Joseph, Mrs. Henry Braun and Mrs. Harry Duffield.

CORPORAL HAWKINS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hawkins and family are back in Glendale and are now at 724 West Eighth street. Mr. Hawkins has sold his store in Glendora. Their son, Walter B. Hawkins, now Corporal Hawkins, has been transferred from Fort Sam Houston, where he has been stationed since he volunteered last spring, and is now in Camp Mineola, on Long Island. He is one of the boys who were in the 1917 graduating class of G. U. H. S., and has already been promoted to head of the drafting department of his squadron, the 23d Arrow Squadron, in the aviation service. The La Crescenta ladies of the Red Cross are getting together a knitted set to send immediately to Corporal Hawkins, and, judging from the postal received recently by his mother, it will be greatly appreciated. The postal pictured Camp Mineola in the winter time, and suggested most forcibly the need of the whole knitted outfit from socks to chest protector, not forgetting the sweater. Corporal Hawkins is one of the boys of whom Glendale is justly proud, and has so far made an unusually rapid advance.

STUDY CURRENT EVENTS

The West Glendale W. C. T. U. met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eva Waller, 1614 Oak street. The devotional services were led by Mrs. Florence Smith. Mrs. Durham also gave a scripture reading and led in prayer. The subject of the meeting was current events, and Mrs. Landry read several interesting topics from recent papers that were of interest to the union. It was found that seventeen of the soldiers' "comfort bags" have been completed and the money handed in to pay for their filling. They will be turned in to the W. C. T. U. headquarters Wednesday. After the business meeting adjourned a short social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. H. R. Gibbs, Mrs. L. G. Sherman and Mrs. Edna Sawyer, who are members of the Schubert Club of Los Angeles, attended the first meeting of the season on Wednesday at Hotel Alexandria. A very charming Spanish program was offered by the Yslas quartet. Glendale was well represented. Mrs. Jack and Miss Alice Frank and her mother were among those present.

A Red Cross home nursing class has been formed in Glendale and the members of the class should secure their books at once, as they are very scarce. The books may be purchased at the Fowler book store.

Mrs. F. E. Alexander, of the Glengary Studio, has just returned from Pomona, where her daughter, Mrs. Franklin Flick, of Covina, is in the hospital, having undergone a very serious operation. Mrs. Flick is doing as well as can be expected.

If Iowa people come out to the Sunday tabernacle Saturday evening in response to the general invitation, and are given reserved seats, former residents of Missouri, Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and all other states will not even get standing room within sight of the tabernacle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Liddell entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Clark of Los Angeles at dinner Wednesday evening, and also their son, Frank Liddell, Jr., who left immediately after for a party in Los Angeles with some of the officers from his camp.

Mrs. Herbert Crane, 107 North Glendale avenue, entertained out of town guests Wednesday. Mrs. Walter Weldon, who is Mr. Crane's sister, and her daughter, Mrs. M. S. Reynolds, with her infant son, Meredith Weldon Reynolds, both of Los Angeles, spent the day with Mrs. Crane.

Mrs. Edna I. Sawyer has recently come to Glendale from Kansas City with her little daughter, Elizabeth, to make their home, and is living at 1616 West Oak street. Mrs. Sawyer is the daughter of the late Mrs. Cora Deacon, an old resident of Glendale and a former member of the Eastern Star.

The population of Glendale proper at the present time may be safely given at 9000. Last March when the census was taken for the city directory the population was 8639. At that time there were probably 100 vacant houses that are occupied now. It is, therefore, safe to say that the filling of these houses has added 400 to the population of last March.

A number of the ladies of the Lutheran Missionary Society are attending a meeting this afternoon at Boyle Heights of the Union Missionary Societies of the English Lutheran churches of Los Angeles and vicinity. Among those from here who will be present are: Mesdames John Esterly, J. W. Imler, G. F. Daugherty and R. W. Mottern.

Mrs. L. A. Wagnon, 125 North Kenwood street, and Mrs. J. H. Gallagher, who has for the past seven weeks been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. B. Wagnon, spent the week end at Catalina, stopping at the Hermosa Hotel. Mrs. Gallagher left on Thursday for her home in Oklahoma City. She will make the trip by way of Denver and Amarillo, Tex.

The music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will hold its first meeting on Friday afternoon, October 12, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of the curator, Mrs. F. N. Arnold, 309 North Maryland. All those expecting to join the section are urged to be present, as important matters pertaining to the year's work will be discussed and decided upon. All members of the club are invited to join.

The many Marshalltown and Marshall county (Iowa) people who now have their homes in Glendale will regret to hear of the death on October 3 at Marshalltown of Mr. L. R. Mrs. John Todd sold our last collection of papers for us for $34.08. That is nearly $8 more than we eyer got before, so we are very much encouraged. That was a practical donation from Mr. Todd of about $15. Mrs. Charles H. Toll sent us a check last week for $10.20; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. White donated $5, and Mr. Ezra Parker, besides permitting us the use of his hall for our work, donated $1 to the newspaper fund. This week the amount turned in to the Red Cross by this department was $50.28.

FOUR-DAY BUSINESS AND PLEASURE TRIP

Mr. E. J. Stanton of Arden avenue and Mr. S. C. Maranville of South Maryland avenue, accompanied by their wives and Mrs. L. D. Eastman of Los Angeles, returned last evening from a four-day auto trip north.

Leaving Glendale early Sunday morning for Bakersfield by the Bouquet canyon route, and from there on to Tulare, this being the first lap of a 600-mile relay, Monday, they visited the towns of Visalia, Goshen, Hanford, Lemoors and Mrs. Stanton's former ranch near Layton. After attending to business matters here they returned to the King's Hotel, in Hanford, for the second stop overnight. The next day, after looking over some ranch property in the King's river country, they journeyed on through the raisin country around and near Fresno. They seem to have had a banner crop this year, for in every direction as far as the eye could see were stacks of trays filled high, and prosperity was seen on every side. On arriving in Fresno they found a hustling, bustling, live wire city, that seemed as a huge machine that had its given work to do, and just kept grinding and sawing straight ahead—nor even stopping for a nap at night, for all night long there were autos and people going to and fro. On leaving the next morning at 4 o'clock there were numerous machines already parked in the streets, and the gentle stir here and there seemed like one just taking a long breath and rubbing his hands together and exclaiming: "Now show me the job."

Every business man is a booster in Fresno, and with each new arrival adding impetus, like a mighty magnet, its pulling power is reaching far, even to the gates of Frisco and Los Angeles. Nor is this idle talk, for if you could see some of the business houses building, nine and ten stories high, and consider it is only a city of a little over 50,000, it is remarkable.

Let us get the moral of this, even if it be only on a small scale, for there was a time when all the business of this valley went out to the larger cities. But, by boosting and pulling together, it's now coming the other way, and as long as this spirit prevails it will be about as hard to stop its growth as it was to stop the Colorado river from running into the Salton sea.

Well, after getting a good deal of data on general business conditions, etc., the aforesaid party met Mr. Glen Stanton, from Oakland, that evening, who returned with them to Glendale. The return trip from Fresno to Glendale was made yesterday. Leaving Fresno early, they had breakfast at Hanford, lunch at Lebeck, taking the ridge home. They arrived in Glendale in time for dinner at home, having had a delightful outing as well as attending to business matters, and mighty glad to be in the land of flowers again and the best town of the whole trip. As Harry Lauder might say, "Ye can not beat it."

Doubt of all kinds can be removed by nothing but action.

Yes, I Make Building Loans!

I am prepared to furnish money to build your house, either on a straight loan or will allow you to make monthly payments. Under the latter plan you have a constant incentive to reduce your debt—an incentive which California folks especially need.

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT FOR THE HOME SAVES A WOMAN'S TIME AND STRENGTH, THUS ENABLING HER TO PERFORM HER PATRIOTIC DUTIES—

Women can help in many ways to win the war if they are not tied down to their homes with housework. Modern labor-saving devices are now a necessity in every home.

There's the war garden to be cared for, canning and preserving to be done. The Red Cross needs workers. Women can help in a number of ways if they have a few spare hours each day.

A good vacuum cleaner, an electric washer or an electric range will enable a woman to retain her reputation as a neat housekeeper and yet so spare her time and strength that she can rally to the Nation's aid.

The Electrical Dealers or ourselves will be glad to explain prices, terms and free trial offer.

splendidly in publicity, and I am certain you can, by suggesting to your newspapers there in that section, get ample publicity on any movement you may start, and especially publicity on the general movement. It is the intention of our committee to include all men under the colors, soldiers, sailors, regular army, guardsmen, hospital corps, engineers' corps, all the marines and men upon the sea; in fact, every branch of the service, and on this account it will take upwards of $40,000 to $50,000 to send even a modest box of acceptable articles, including possibly a cashier's or traveler's check for an amount in cash, which the boys could spend wherever they may be.

Would like to say for your information that at least 75 per cent of the boys will be in cantonments, camps and at the various training camps in this country, and principally upon the Pacific coast, at Christmas time. We state this upon information received from Washington. The balance will be on foreign shores and upon the sea, and we are arranging to reach them through the Postoffice Department and the departments of war and navy. We are promised hearty co-operation in our movement, and are being commended for the spirit shown. Kindly get in touch with us, and as often as possible attend the meetings, which will continue until the work is out of the way.

The committee has not yet decided as to just what will be included in the Christmas boxes, but the boxes will all be in a uniform manner, attractively labeled, and containing useful articles, and it is suggested that such articles as a toothbrush, tooth paste, soap, lime drops, chewing gum, shoestrings, writing paper, post cards and nonperishable delicacies such as preserved or candied fruit, Southern California nuts, almonds and walnuts, a bar of chocolate, and all of the articles will be selected from Southern California manufacturers and products. All this will be a reminder of home and the Southland. You would be surprised to see the spirit shown in undertaking the work on behalf of all.

The program committee has planned to stage a football game in the near future upon a certain Saturday, between the University of Southern California and the regular army boys at Fort McArthur. Also a game is to be staged at Pasadena, Pomona and other localities.

The moving picture industry under Max Sennett and Charles Murray are expecting to pull off a function to include all of the artists in their industry here in Los Angeles, and you will be fully advised of this and other arrangements.

The churches and schools are being organized to help in raising the funds. A collection will be taken up at the Billy Sunday tabernacle in the near future, and a special night devoted to this Yuletide Fund. Your full co-operation is asked, and do not hesitate to get in touch with us on anything that you might wish to know regarding this matter.

Thanking you for your prompt response, we are, Very truly yours.

BAKER'S VINDICATION CLEARS HIS RECORD

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—When Home Run Baker returned to the lineup for the Yankees he stood vindicated in the minds of the baseball fans throughout the country. His record was cleared absolutely of the stigma that seemed to have been cast upon him when Bill Donovan suspended him, ostensibly for refusing to take part in an exhibition game.

As a matter of fact, Baker's suspension was not for refusing to play at Bridgeport. It was due entirely to a misunderstanding of motives behind an order from Donovan. When the Yankees returned from Bridgeport the day following their exhibition and appeared at the Polo Grounds Baker was asked to sit on the bench in order for Donovan to send Fritz Maisel out for work. Youngsters also were reporting and Donovan wanted to see them in action against big league baseball. Baker construed the request as a disciplinary measure following his failure to show up for the Connecticut game.

In a huff, the home run king quit the bench. The next day he went to Maryland to sulk. The publicity given the case induced him to return to New York and try to straighten things out. He found himself suspended and jumped to the conclusion that it was for his failure to play Sunday. He demanded that the suspension be lifted and that every cent of his salary held up during his suspension be given him. He declared he never would play baseball again unless his demands were met.

Baker made these demands of President Ruppert, but Ruppert referred the pouting third baseman to Donovan, who told Baker the truth of the matter. The suspension was lifted, Baker drew his check and was back in harness shortly after.

Baker's loss would have been a tremendous blow to the Yankees. Just now they possess one of the poorest clubs of the American League. In Baker they have one position well filled by a man who can hit behind base runners. He is about the only man who has played up to form this year. His permanent loss would have robbed the Yankees of their greatest drawing card.

HAPPENINGS IN STATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Inspired by feminine patriots who are serving their country, Mrs. Sadie A. Kitchen, woman barber, in a letter today applied for enlistment in the United States marine corps here. Her application was referred to Washington for final action. Mrs. Kitchen believes that battalions of death, women ambulance drivers and yeomen in the navy form precedents for her enlistment application.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 11.—Two weeks ago Miss Elsa De Gille was just a pretty Swedish waitress in a local cafe. Today she is in Los Angeles—one of the best paid scenario writers for a leading photoplay company. Educated in Sweden, where she gained some notice as a writer, Miss De Gille came to America in search of new fields. She knew no English. A year ago she secured employment here and began to study. Two weeks ago her first scenario was accepted, and in the next twelve days three others found a market. Then came a call to her to join the staff of a leading company.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—Chas. G. Titus, known throughout the West as a successful Y. M. C. A. secretary, has been selected as one of five men from the Pacific coast to go to France immediately and take up Y. M. C. A. war work.

EUREKA, Cal., Oct. 11.—The heaviest run of salmon on Eel river in years is the prediction of experienced fishermen for the 1917 season. The season opened Monday morning, and of 150 boats which swarmed the lower reaches of the river there was not an unsuccessful party of sportsmen. Commercial fishermen fared equally well.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—The Mormon church of Utah is giving enthusiastic support to the second Liberty loan, according to word which has reached the Liberty loan headquarters here. Ten thousand representatives of the church from all parts of Utah recently adopted a resolution urging investment in Liberty bonds. C. W. Nibley, financial head of the church, led by buying $100,000 worth and contributed a full page advertisement in a newspaper urging the people of Utah to "do their bit."

AMERICAN COMFORT KITS FOR RUSSIANS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—A million comfort kits for the Russian revolutionary army and as many more for the American army and navy is the gift being planned by the American Red Cross today.

If you are going to assist in making this gift possible the following suggestion from General Pershing and Miss Florence Marshall, director of the Red Cross Woman's Bureau, will be helpful:

"Three types of kits are favored—a simple bag with drawstring, and two with pockets, one for trench work, the other for hospital use. The kits are to be made of plain khaki, as colored goods is dangerously visible when carried by troops at the front. The kits should contain pipe, tobacco pouch, heavy socks, handkerchiefs, wash cloths and soap, mouth organ or game, pencil, writing paper or pad and envelopes and a single-bladed knife and spoon.

"Last but not least," General Pershing said, "they should have an American flag sewed on the outside."

The way to choose between actions is to choose between aims.—Youth's Companion.
